科目英文名稱：English Certificate Course IV

教學目標(中文)

English Certificate Course prepares students for oral English interactions in the real world. This course keeps students interested in learning and improving their English conversation skills with interesting and relevant chapter topics for modern students. Readings and listening exercises focus on global topics supported by a variety of vocabulary usage exercises. Chapter topics include Lifestyles Around the World, Global Connections, Language and Communication, Tastes and Preferences, New Frontiers, and Ceremonies. Each lesson will provide practical speaking opportunities in class and model dialogs for student practice. Students will be asked to write original dialogs to demonstrate their conversation skill.
